Relationship between the Toyo Ink Group’s Businesses and Society

Your daily life is filled with the wide variety of products we create. They are always close to you, used and seen consciously every day. At the Toyo Ink Group, we are determined to support the lives of diverse people around the world with superb products and services that they will be happy with by making use of the technological capabilities that we have cultivated throughout more than 100 years of operation and by forecasting what goods and services we should offer from the consumers’ perspective.
