1. Overview of Operating Results, etc.

(1) Overview of operating results for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2019

(Million yen)

	Net sales	Operating profit	Ordinary profit	Profit attributable to owners of parent
December 2019	279,892	13,174	13,847	8,509
Growth rate (%)	-3.6	-13.8	-10.3	-28.2
December 2018	290,208	15,276	15,429	11,847

During the fiscal year under review, the global economy showed a further slowdown in China, among other countries, associated with trade friction between the United States and China and the increasing political risk, although growth continued mainly in the United States. Japan also experienced growing deterioration in business confidence, reflecting the impact of the global economy, the consumption tax hike and poor weather conditions.

Despite this business environment, the Toyo Ink Group operated its business activities in line with the following three policies of the fiscal year under review.

Under the first policy of “developing new businesses and providing value that captures changes in the market and customer needs,” the Group viewed changes in the market and environment as opportunities, stepped up the development of new products and new businesses, and took on many challenges to provide new value.

In the Colorants and Functional Materials Related Business, the Group achieved both high grade technology and price competitiveness in the materials for LCD color filters segment, and grew sales to China, its largest market. Similarly, in the functional materials segment, the Group expanded its track record in areas such as high-performance dispersants in materials for lithium-ion batteries and pigment dispersants for inkjet inks. In the Polymers and Coatings Related Business, sales of adhesives for use in displays and lithium ion batteries and coating materials for use in 5G high-speed communication systems grew and the Group also made progress developing and expanding sales of eco-friendly can coatings and biomass adhesives. In addition, the Group conducted various demonstration experiments with an eye to commercializing sensor systems as a solution proposal business in the future. In the Packaging Materials Related Business, the Group sought improved performance and increased sales of ecofriendly inks such as biomass and water-based inks in Japan and overseas countries. Meanwhile, the Group also pushed ahead with the development of deinking and delaminating technologies and products aiming to establish groundbreaking recycling systems for plastic containers and packaging. In the Printing and Information Related Business, the Group launched new products such as ink for web rotary offset presses that improves printing performance and UV biomass ink for labels and also pursued improved performance and global sales expansion of inkjet inks for digital printing.

Under the second policy of “leading the market with leading-edge technology by fundamentally reviewing the supply chains, the product structure, and manufacturing processes and procedures at bases in Japan and overseas as a manufacturing company,” the Group expanded manufacturing facilities in Japan for products with growth potential such as adhesives and dispersants and manufacturing facilities in Europe and China for inkjet inks. The Group’s first factory in Myanmar was also completed and started running. In addition, the Group set up a sales company in Morocco and also stepped up marketing activities in anticipation of Africa’s economic growth. Meanwhile, in the offset printing inks and newspaper ink business in Japan where the market is shrinking as a result of the progress of digitalization, the Group made a start on improving the efficiency of its business structure to withstand the decline in demand and forming alliances with other companies in the same industry. Furthermore, in response to persistently high prices for raw materials, the Group switched to formulations using alternative raw materials and also conducted research to innovate manufacturing methods.

Under the third policy of “reforming the culture, personnel system and operations so as to be willing to change and encourage challenges,” the Group focused on the establishment of an efficient production structure utilizing sensors and data science and on the improvement of productivity of operations utilizing RPA (Robotic Process Automation). The Group also made revisions to its personnel system as a result of reviewing its evaluation system and working styles and lay the foundations for a climate that encourages challenges.

However, the market for high-performance products such as smartphones remained weak, associated with the prolonged trade friction between the United States and China, and raw materials prices remained high. As a result, net sales for the fiscal year under review declined to 279,892 million yen (down 3.6% year on year), and profit also fell with operating profit of 13,174 million yen (down 13.8% year on year), ordinary profit of 13,847 million yen (down 10.3% year on year), and profit attributable to owners of parent of 8,509 million yen (down 28.2% year on year).

Results by segment are as follows.

Total consolidated	290,208	279,892	-3.6	15,276	13,174	-13.8

(i) Colorants and Functional Materials Related Business

Sales of high-performance pigments and materials for LCD color filters did not grow much because utilization shrank, particularly among customers in Japan and South Korea that deal with high-definition products in particular, due to continued weak demand for smartphones and TV sets. Profits were also squeezed, with demand for the reduction of costs for parts and materials becoming stronger in China and Taiwan.

Sales of commodity-type pigments, particularly those for printing inks for publications, continued to be weak, and those for automobile coatings also grew at a sluggish pace. The prices of raw materials, mainly caused by the supply shortage associated with environmental regulations, continued to rise, and an effort to offset such rises with higher sales prices was not enough to make up for the decline in profits.

While sales of plastic colorants for containers continued to grow in Japan, sales of high-performance products such as plastic colorants for automobiles, construction materials and solar cells remained weak. In addition, sales of office equipment were sluggish in Southeast Asia.

As a result, net sales in the overall Colorants and Functional Materials Related Business decreased to 67,400 million yen (down 9.7% year on year), and operating profit fell to 3,386 million yen (down 36.4% year on year).

(ii) Polymers and Coatings Related Business

In the functional films and tapes segment, both sales and operating profit grew at a sluggish pace in general due to the weak smartphone market and intensifying price competition in China and South Korea, although the Group advanced the development and sales of electromagnetic shielding films for high-speed communication and other products.

In the adhesives segment, domestic sales of those for use in packaging remained firm, and sales of adhesives for use in lithium-ion batteries, particularly those for automobiles, expanded. In the overseas business, sales expansion advanced in China, Southeast Asia and Turkey. In the adhesive compounds segment, demand for those for labels remained strong, and sales of those for LCD polarization plates expanded.

In the can coatings (finishes) segment, sales continued to be weak in Japan due to poor weather conditions from summer to autumn, although eco-friendly products expanded.

As a result, net sales in the overall Polymers and Coatings Related Business slipped to 65,887 million yen (down 0.3% year on year), and operating profit fell to 6,013 million yen (down 0.4% year on year).

(iii) Packaging Materials Related Business

Although domestic sales of gravure inks for construction materials remained flat from the previous year, in addition to a continued fall in domestic demand for gravure inks for publication, sales of those for the packaging of food and drinks, mainly for private brands and convenience stores, remained firm. Above all, sales of biomass inks grew strongly. Overseas, sales of eco-friendly type products expanded in Southeast Asia and India, while sales did not grow much in China.

Following a sharp rise in raw material prices from the previous fiscal year in Japan and overseas, the Group systematically promoted cost reductions and shifted some of the higher costs onto sales prices.

In the gravure cylinder platemaking segment, sales were sluggish for packaging, but sales from precision plate-making related to electronics expanded.

As a result, net sales of the overall Packaging Materials Related Business were mostly unchanged year on year, amounting to 68,071 million yen (up 0.0% year on year), and operating profit rose to 3,058 million yen (up 105.0% year on year).

(iv) Printing and Information Related Business

Given the shrinking domestic information-related print market associated with the progress of digitization, the Group strongly sought to optimize its business scale by product, facilitate collaboration with other companies in the same trade, and reduce costs in Japan, while bolstering sales overseas by expanding its global bases, which resulted in the advancement of sales expansion in India and South America. In addition, the Group promoted sales expansion in the growing African market by establishing a sales company in Morocco. The development and sales expansion of highly sensitive UV ink using leading-edge technology and other products such as inkjet ink for on-demand printing also made progress.

However, domestic demand for offset inks for the commercial printing of circulars and other materials, as well as existing information publications including newspapers and magazines, declined more than expected partly due to shortage of printing paper. In addition, the rising prices of raw materials, mainly due to the supply shortage associated with environmental regulations, also put a squeeze on profits. In this environment, the Group undertook revisions of sales prices.

As a result, both net sales and operating profit in the overall Printing and Information Related Business decreased. Net sales amounted to 76,680 million yen (down 3.4% year on year) and operating profit was 314 million yen (down 66.3% year on year).

(v) Other

This segment covers businesses not included in the above segments and services provided mainly by TOYO INK SC HOLDINGS CO., LTD. Net sales increased to 7,291 million yen (up 0.9% year on year), but operating profit fell to 424 million yen (down 71.4% year on year) due to an increase in expenses for global system integration and retirement benefit expenses.

(2) Overview of financial position during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2019

(Million yen)

	End of previous fiscal year	End of fiscal year under review	Change
Total assets	371,610	376,130	4,520
Liabilities	150,518	149,237	-1,281
Net assets	221,091	226,892	5,801

The Company adopted the “Partial Amendments to Accounting Standard for Tax Effect Accounting” (ASBJ Statement No. 28 issued on February 16, 2018), etc. at the beginning of the fiscal year under review, and in the details of financial position, a comparison with the previous consolidated fiscal year and an analysis are carried out using the values after the said Standard, etc. are applied retrospectively.

Total assets at the end of the fiscal year under review stood at 376,130 million yen, up 4,520 million yen from the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year. Liabilities were 149,237 million yen, down 1,281 million yen from the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year. Net assets came to 226,892 million yen, up 5,801 million yen from the end of the previous consolidated fiscal year.

On the last day of the fiscal year under review, the exchange value of the yen rose above its level on the last day of the previous consolidated fiscal year. As a result, assets and liabilities held by overseas subsidiaries and foreign currency translation adjustments fell. In the meantime, investment securities and net defined benefit asset each increased, reflecting rising stock prices. As a result, deferred tax liabilities, valuation difference on available-for-sale securities and remeasurements of defined benefit plans also increased respectively.

(3) Overview of cash flow during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2019

(Million yen)

	Previous term	Term under review	Change
Cash flows from operating activities	19,197	19,673	476
Cash flows from investing activities	-10,828	-10,404	424
Cash flows from financing activities	-5,695	-6,247	-551
Cash and cash equivalents at end of period	50,958	53,765	2,806

Cash and cash equivalents (“cash”) at the end of the fiscal year under review stood at 53,765 million yen, up 2,806 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year.

Cash provided by operating activities stood at 19,673 million yen, up 476 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year, mainly reflecting an increase in cash flows due to the posting of profit before income taxes and a decrease in cash flows due to income taxes paid.

Cash used in investment activities was 10,404 million yen, down 424 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year, which mainly reflects the purchase of property, plant, and equipment.

Cash used in financing activities stood at 6,247 million yen, up 551 million yen from the end of the previous fiscal year, primarily reflecting repayments of loans payable and cash dividends paid.

Trends in Group cash flows are as follows:

	Term ended March 2017	Term ended December 2017	Term ended December 2018	Term ended December 2019
Capital adequacy ratio (%)	57.9	58.5	57.6	58.3

Capital adequacy ratio: Shareholders' equity / total assets

Market value-based capital adequacy ratio: Market capitalization / total assets

Ratio of interest-bearing debt to cash flows: Interest-bearing debt / cash flows

Interest coverage ratio: Cash flows / interest payments

(Notes) 1. Each indicator is calculated using consolidated financial data.

2. Market capitalization is computed based on the number of shares issued excluding treasury shares.

3. Cash flows denote cash flows from operating activities.

4. Interest-bearing debt denotes all debts recorded in consolidated balance sheets that pay interest.

(4) Future prospects

(Million yen)

	Net sales	Operating profit	Ordinary profit	Profit attributable to owners of parent
Term ending December 2020 (forecast)	290,000	15,000	15,500	10,000
Term ended December 2019	279,892	13,174	13,847	8,509
Growth rate (%)	3.6	13.9	11.9	17.5

While a moderate recovery is expected to continue globally in the economic environment of the next fiscal year, fear of an economic slowdown is gradually growing, partly due to the impact of a novel coronavirus pneumonia.

The Toyo Ink Group also expects that the harsh business environment with challenges such as the stubbornly high cost of raw materials, and forecasts that net sales will be 290.0 billion yen (growth rate of 3.6%), operating profit will be 15.0 billion yen (growth rate of 13.9%), ordinary profit will be 15.5 billion yen (growth rate of 11.9%), and profit attributable to owners of parent will be 10.0 billion yen (growth rate of 17.5%) as a result of taking measures to address the issues described on pages 8 and 9.

3. Management Policy

(1) Basic management policy

All corporate activities of the Group are guided by a corporate philosophy of “People-oriented management,” a corporate policy of “Aiming to be a company creating new values for human culture throughout the world,” and guiding principles that call for customer satisfaction, employee satisfaction, society satisfaction, and shareholder satisfaction.

While maintaining the corporate philosophy, corporate policy and guiding principles described above as unchangeable throughout the ages, the Group will undertake the necessary adaptation in line with the times, aiming for sustainable growth toward the 200th anniversary of its foundation.

Specifically, the Group will expand the scope of our contribution as a company creating new value for human culture from consumers to life and the global environment and work on solving such issues, thereby contributing to the realization of a world where everyone and everything can live together in harmony.

In addition, the Group will endeavor to reform its corporate character to enable it to achieve sustainable growth and increase satisfaction from a long-term perspective to ensure the sustainability of all stakeholders, including the pursuit of value innovation and the enhancement of risk management.

(2) Medium- to long-term management strategy

The Toyo Ink Group establishes its long-term vision every 10 years. The Group decided that the value it would provide in the next 10 years until 2027 would be “For a Vibrant World,” and is striving to reform itself to build a corporate structure capable of achieving century-long sustainable growth and become a corporate group that contributes to the development of a world where all consumers, lives, and the global environment coexist vibrantly.

The concept for corporate activities in this new long-term vision is “Scientific Innovation Chain 2027 (SIC27),” which has five core themes: “technology and product,” “business model,” “network,” “manufacturing,” and “management foundation.” Under this concept, the Group is aiming to reform its corporate system to one that is capable of achieving sustainable growth through a chain of actions of implementing innovative thinking and scientific execution. In addition, the Group will focus not only on growth markets, but also on business domains that will contribute to the resolution of social issues and potential for the sustainable growth of life and the global environment by strategically improving and expanding the framework of its business domains.

The Group has positioned the medium-term management plan “SIC-I (FY2018 through FY2020),” which is the first step of this long-term vision, as the period of building the foundation for sustainable growth based on the long-term vision SIC27. The Group will reform its existing businesses to proposal-based businesses based on the potential needs of the market, develop them in new regions and markets, and create new businesses using the Group’s core technologies to expand its business domains and increase sales.

In addition to reforming its production process, the Group will achieve manufacturing innovation by adopting technologies such as IoT, AI, and robotics, improve and revitalize its establishments in Japan and abroad, and aim to enable timely product supply and globally stable quality and low cost, thereby attaining the further growth of its earnings.

Furthermore, the Group will enhance its management resources that are necessary for business domain expansion and manufacturing innovation, establish its management basis by promoting CSR, strengthening its risk management system, etc., and fulfill more responsibilities as a member of society.

(3) Our challenges

In the fiscal year under review, which is the second year of the medium-term management plan, the financial results grew at a sluggish pace because the business environment deteriorated, and the Group was slow in responding to this deterioration. However, in the following fiscal year, which is the final year of the medium-term management plan, the Group will learn from past trial-and-error experiences and work on the structural reforms of its businesses in line with a strategy of selection and concentration and the strengthening of its corporate character.

The Group will operate its businesses as described below based on the following three policies: “Steadily producing results by strengthening cooperation both within and beyond the Group and prioritizing investment in businesses to be actively expanded,” “Reliably implementing structural reforms in businesses and areas by reducing costs and generating profits through concerted action across production, sales and engineering,” and “Making bold changes by ceaselessly taking on challenges for business transformation.”

In the Colorants and Functional Materials Related Business, the Group will seek to further expand sales of materials for LCD color filters to the Chinese market and will also expand the business of materials used in sensors by speeding up technology development capacity and strengthening the quality assurance structure. In the segment of materials used in lithium ion batteries, the Group will expand business for the big four auto markets of the United States, Europe, China and Japan. Furthermore, in the colorant segment, the Group will proceed to enter to new growing markets such as the eco-friendly colorant market and will focus on business structure reforms for optimization of global SCM in the pigment segment.

In the Polymers and Coatings Related Business, the Group will expand eco-friendly products that meet core environmental, safety and energy-saving needs on a global scale in the packaging and industrial materials segment. Meanwhile, in the electronics segment, the Group will respond to changes in technology such as 5G and the IoT by expanding products that reduce noise and are easy to use. At the same time, the Group will seek global expansion of its production bases and will also strengthen its technology, marketing and network capabilities.

In the Packaging Materials Related Business, the Group will concentrate even more on the expansion of eco-friendly gravure inks and flexographic inks that meet the needs of each market, including biomass inks and water-based inks. It will also establish new factories that employ new manufacturing methods and automation to improve productivity in China, Southeast Asia, India and Turkey, and will put in place a supply structure in response to market growth and global sales expansion.

In the Printing and Information Related Business, the Group will implement further structural reforms in the domestic offset ink business through measures such as the consolidation of production and alliances with other companies and will establish a profit generating structure. As for UV inks, which will continue to grow, the Group will seek to achieve both cost reductions and quality improvements and will pursue sales expansion on a global scale. In the inkjet ink segment, the Group will also seek to expand applications to include flexible packaging, for example.

Furthermore, the Group deeply regrets the occurrence of improper accounting in the Philippines and will focus on improving its global governance structure as the basis for conducting business activities and will also seek to strengthen its quality assurance structure in response to expansion in the Group's business areas. While dealing appropriately with changes in economic trends associated with the United States presidential election, trade tensions between the United States and China and other factors as well as with fluctuations in demand associated with the hosting of the Tokyo Olympics and Paralympics, the Group will work towards achievement of its long-term corporate vision "Scientific Innovation Chain 2027."

4. Basic Position on the Selection of Accounting Standards

The Group utilizes the Japanese accounting standards due to the possibility of comparing the terms of financial statements and performance between the companies.

We are moving ahead with the necessary preparations for the future adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). We intend to make a decision on suitable timing for its implementation, factoring in the situations in Japan and abroad.

Sam Young Ink & Paint Mfg. Co., Ltd.;
Toyo Ink Europe S.A.;
Toyo Ink America, LLC;
Jiangmen Toyo Ink Co.

During the consolidated fiscal year under review, the Company consolidated one subsidiary and deconsolidated three subsidiaries.

- In the fiscal year under review, Toyo Ink North Africa S.A.R.L. was established and became a consolidated subsidiary.
- Toyo Adhesive Sheet Processing (Tianjin) Co., Ltd., Arets Asia Pacific Co., Ltd. and Toyo Ink Arets Canada Inc., which were consolidated subsidiaries during the previous fiscal year, were liquidated in the fiscal year under review and have been excluded from the scope of consolidation.

2. Application of the equity method

The equity method is applied to investments in seven affiliates.

Names of major subsidiaries:

NIPPON POLYMER IND. CO., LTD.;
Zhuhai Sumika Polymer Compounds Co., Ltd.

In the fiscal year under review, two companies were excluded from the affiliates accounted for using the equity method.

- Ga-city CORP, which was an affiliate accounted for using the equity method during the previous fiscal year, was liquidated in the fiscal year under review and has been excluded from the scope of application of the equity method.
- Sumika Polymer Compounds America Inc. which was an affiliate accounted for using the equity method during the previous fiscal year, has been excluded from the scope of application of the equity method due to the sale of its shares during the fiscal year under review.

3. Fiscal year-end of consolidated subsidiaries

The fiscal year-end date of consolidated subsidiaries is the same as the consolidated closing date.

4. Accounting standards

(1) Important appraisal standards and appraisal method for assets

1) Securities

For those with market value

Stated at market value based on market prices, etc., as of the period-end

(Unrealized valuation gains or losses are reported in the shareholders' equity, and sales costs are determined by the moving average method.)

For those without market value

Stated at cost as determined by the moving average method.

2) Derivatives

Market value method

3) Inventories

Finished goods, work-in-process and raw material

In principle, the cost method based on the gross average method is applied.

(The value in the balance sheet is calculated by the method of book value devaluation based on lowering of profitability)

Overseas consolidated subsidiaries mainly use the gross average method or the lower-of-cost-or-market method according to the first-in, first-out method.

Merchandise and supplies

In principle, the last cost method is applied.

(The value in the balance sheet is calculated by the method of book value devaluation based on lowering of profitability)

Overseas consolidated subsidiaries mainly use the gross average method or the lower-of-cost-or-market method according to the first-in, first-out method.

(2) Depreciation method of important depreciable fixed assets

1) Property, plant and equipment (excluding leased assets)

Straight-line method

Major useful lives:

Buildings and structures Eight to 50 years

Machinery, equipment and vehicles Five to 15 years

Tools, furniture and fixtures Three to 15 years

2) Leased assets

Financing lease transactions that do not involve a transfer of ownership

Calculation method for the equivalent of depreciation cost

The depreciation method for assets is to use the lease period as useful lives, calculating the residual value of such assets as zero.

Of financing lease transactions that do not involve a transfer of ownership, lease transactions that started on or before March 31, 2008 use the accounting method for normal lease transactions.

(3) Important standards for appropriation of allowances

1) Allowance for doubtful receivables

We record an allowance based on historical percentage for ordinary receivables and an estimated amount for specific uncollectible receivables.

2) Provision for environmental measures

To prepare for spending on environmental measures, we recorded the estimated amount of spending at the end of the consolidated fiscal year under review.

(4) Accounting treatment for retirement benefits

1) Attribution of estimated retirement benefits

To calculate benefit liabilities, the estimated amount of retirement benefits is attributed to the period until the end of the consolidated fiscal year under review based on the benefit formula.

2) Treatment of unrecognized actuarial differences and past service costs

Past service costs are posted in expenses based on the straight-line method for a fixed period of years (13 years) within the average remaining service years of employees when costs accrue from their service.

Actuarial differences are posted in expenses from the consolidated fiscal year following their accruals based on proportional division through the straight-line method for a fixed period of years (13 years) within the average remaining service years of employees.

(5) Standards for translating significant foreign currency-denominated assets or liabilities into Japanese yen

Foreign currency-denominated monetary receivables and payables are translated into Japanese yen at the spot exchange rates on the consolidated settlement day. The effect of exchange rate changes is posted as a translation gain or loss. In connection with this, assets and liabilities of overseas consolidated subsidiaries are translated into Japanese yen at the spot exchange rates on their settlement day. Revenues and expenses are translated into Japanese yen at the average rate during the year. The effect of exchange rate changes is posted in foreign currency translation adjustments and non-controlling interests in the section of net assets.

(6) Significant hedge accounting

1) Hedge accounting

Among interest swap transactions, those that satisfy special transaction requirements are processed.

2) Hedging method and hedging target

Hedging method: Interest swap transactions

Hedging target: Long-term loans payable

3) Hedging policy

The Company engages in interest swap transactions to prevent the risk of payable interest rate fluctuations and to fix payable interest cash flow.

4) Assessing hedging effectiveness

Assessing hedging effectiveness is omitted because interest swap transactions have satisfied requirements for special transactions.

(7) Amortization of goodwill and amortization period

Goodwill is amortized individually and equally over a reasonable period of up to 20 years.

(8) Cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated cash flow statements

In preparing the consolidated cash flow statements, cash on hand, readily available deposits, and short-term liquid investments with maturities not exceeding three months at the time of purchase and little risk of changing value are considered to be cash and cash equivalents.

(9) Other important matters for production of the consolidated financial statements

1) Accounting treatment of consumption tax, etc.

Amounts shown are exclusive of consumption tax and local consumption tax.

2) Application of a consolidated taxation system

The Company uses the consolidated taxation system.

(Changes in accounting policies)

(Adoption of IFRS 16 Leases)

Overseas consolidated subsidiaries other than those in the United States have adopted IFRS 16 Leases from the current fiscal year, and the Company has adopted a method of recognizing the cumulative effect of applying the Standard on the day of the initial application, which is permitted as a transitional measure.

As a result, lease assets, “Other” of current liabilities, and “Other” of non-current liabilities increased 3,945 million yen, 283 million yen, and 723 million yen, respectively, while “Other” of investments and other assets decreased 3,016 million yen at the end of the current fiscal year. The impact on profit and loss and per-share information in the fiscal year under review is minor.

(Changes in accounting policies that are difficult to differentiate from changes in accounting-based estimates)

(Changes in the depreciation method of property, plant and equipment)

While the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries in Japan previously used the declining-balance method (however, the straight-line method for buildings (excluding facilities attached to buildings) acquired on or after April 1, 1998 and facilities attached to buildings and structures acquired on or after April 1, 2016) as the depreciation method of property, plant and equipment (excluding lease assets), the Company has changed to the straight-line method from the current fiscal year.

The Group conducts business activities by positioning the medium-term management plan “SIC-I” starting from fiscal 2018 as a period when the Group will build its foundation for sustainable growth, and closely examines the actual utilization and operational status of the production facilities it owns once again in the process of strengthening the global production system amid the rising overseas sales ratio.

As a result, it has been discovered that the long-term stable operation of the domestic production facilities of the Group is expected in general, given that investments are made primarily for their renewal and higher efficiency associated with the shift to the global production and sales systems by changing the focus on Japan in its effort to promote the review and revitalization of domestic and overseas bases and build the global manufacturing network. For this reason, the Group has decided that it is more appropriate to change the depreciation method of property, plant and equipment in Japan to the straight-line method.

As a result of this change, operating profit, ordinary profit and profit before income taxes each increased 987 million yen in the fiscal year under review in comparison with the previous method.

The impact of this change on the segments is stated in (Segment information, etc.).

(Changes in presentation methods)

(Changes associated with adoption of “Partial Amendments to Accounting Standard for Tax Effect Accounting”)

The Company adopted the “Partial Amendments to Accounting Standard for Tax Effect Accounting” (ASBJ Statement No. 28 issued on February 16, 2018) at the beginning of the fiscal year under review, and deferred tax assets are presented in investments and other assets, and deferred tax liabilities are presented in non-current liabilities.

As a result, in the consolidated balance sheet for the previous consolidated fiscal year, 254 million yen out of 2,179 million yen in “Deferred tax assets” under “Current assets” is included in 2,163 million yen of “Deferred tax assets” under “Investments and other assets” and 1,924 million yen out of 2,179 million yen in “Deferred tax assets” under “Current assets” is included in 7,847 million yen of “Deferred tax liabilities” under “Noncurrent liabilities.”

(Consolidated statements of cash flows)

“Repayments of lease obligations,” which were included in “Other” under “Cash flows from financing activities” in the previous consolidated fiscal year are presented separately from the consolidated fiscal year under review due to increased financial materiality. Meanwhile, “Dividends paid to non-controlling interests” under “Cash flows from financing activities,” which were presented separately in the previous consolidated fiscal year, are included in “Other” from the consolidated fiscal year under review due to decreased financial materiality. The consolidated financial statements for the previous consolidated fiscal year have been restated to reflect these changes in presentation.

As a result, in the consolidated statements of cash flows for the previous consolidated fiscal year, “Dividends paid to noncontrolling interests” of -223 million yen and “Other” of -142 million yen presented under “Cash flows from financing activities” are restated as “Repayments of lease obligations” of -95 million yen and “Other” of -270 million yen.

The Group classifies its assets based on the categories of management accounting and classifies idle assets and assets for lease by individual property.

The book value of the above asset group has been reduced to its recoverable amount due to a delay in the improvement of earnings, partly caused by the rising prices of raw materials amid the structural recession associated with the digitization of the domestic printing market, despite our efforts to optimize the business size by product and reduce costs, and the amount of the reduction is recorded as an impairment loss (437 million yen) in extraordinary losses. The breakdown of the impairment loss is machinery, equipment, and vehicles of 361 million yen, and other of 75 million yen.

The recoverable amount of the asset group is measured by the value in use and calculated by discounting future cash flow at 5.1%.

a. Segment information

1. Overview of reportable segments

The reportable segments of the Company are those units for which separate financial statements can be obtained among the constituent units of the Company and which are regularly examined by the Board of Directors for decisions on the allocation of management resources and for assessing business performance.

Based on factors such as the type and similarity of operations, the Company has categorized its operations into four groups, which are the reportable segments. They are the Colorants and Functional Materials Related Business, the Polymers and Coatings Related Business, the Packaging Materials Related Business, the Printing and Information Related Business and. Each business unit operates by establishing comprehensive domestic and overseas strategies for each product and service.

The Colorants and Functional Materials Related Business mainly manufactures and sells organic pigments, processed pigments, plastic colorants and color filter materials. The Polymers and Coatings Related Business mainly manufactures and sells can coatings, resins, adhesives, adhesive compounds, coating materials natural materials and medical products. The Packaging Materials Related Business mainly manufactures and sells gravure inks, flexographic inks and gravure cylinders. The Printing and Information Related Business mainly manufactures and sells offset inks, metal printing inks, printing presses, printing equipment, prepress systems, printing supplies, and ink-jet materials.

2. Method of calculation for net sales, profits or losses by reportable segment

Accounting procedures for reported business segments are generally the same as those stated in “Basic and important matters in preparing the consolidated financial statements.”

Intersegment earnings and transfer are based on current market prices.

(Changes in the depreciation method of property, plant and equipment)

As stated in (Changes in accounting policies that are difficult to differentiate from changes in accounting-based estimates), while the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries in Japan previously used the declining-balance method (the straight-line method for buildings [excluding facilities attached to buildings] acquired on or after April 1, 1998 and facilities attached to buildings and structures acquired on or after April 1, 2016) as the depreciation method of property, plant and equipment (excluding lease assets), the Company has changed to the straight-line method from the consolidated fiscal year under review.

As a result of this change, segment profits in the consolidated fiscal year under review increased 328 million yen in the Colorants and Functional Materials Business, 215 million yen in the Polymers and Coatings Related Business, 199 million yen in the Packaging Materials Business, 145 million yen in the Printing and Information Business and 97 million yen in Other Business in comparison with profits based on the previous method.
